New York World's Fair 1964-1965 Corporation Housing Handbook

Seventy million people are expected to visit the New York World's Fair in 1964 and 1965. Among them will be residents of every state in the union and nearly every country in the world. To insure that these millions of visitors will have an adequate choice of hotel and motel rooms at reasonable prices, the New York World's Fair 1964-1965 Corporation has arranged with the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau for the establishment of a World's Fair Housing Bureau.—The Convention and Visitors Bureau is a non-profit civic organization which provides information and assistance to visitors and which has had long experience in coordinating housing arrangements for conventions and other events which attract large numbers of people to the city. The Housing Bureau operates under its direct supervision.—It is the task of the World's Fair Housing Bureau to marshal the enormous hotel facilities of the New York City area, and to act as a clearing house for reservations and information on establishments that offer accommodations for World's Fair visitors. Its program has received the unanimous support of the hotel and motel industry. Although the opening date of the Fair is still many months away as this is written, virtually every transient hotel and motel in New York City and its environs has agreed to participate. — The World's Fair Housing Bureau invites organizations, government representatives, travel agents, carriers and other members of the travel industry throughout the world to work with it in providing the best possible accommodations for all World's Fair visitors.

On s'attend à ce que 70 millions de personnes visitent l'Exposition Internationale de New York en 1964 et 1965. Il y aura des résidents de tous les états de l'Union et de presque tous les pays du monde. Pour s'assurer que ces millions de visiteurs auront un choix satisfaisant de chambres d'hôtels et de motels à des prix raisonnables, la société de l'Exposition Internationale de New York 1964-1965 a fait des arrangements avec le Bureau des Congrès et Visiteurs de New York pour établir un Bureau de Logement de l'Exposition Internationale.

Le Bureau des Congrès et Visiteurs est une association civile bénévole qui fournit aux visiteurs renseignements et assistance et qui a une longue expérience de la coordination des disponibilités de logement pour les congrès et autres événements qui attirent de grandes foules dans cette ville. Le Bureau de Logement fonctionne sous son contrôle direct.

Il appartient au Bureau de Logement de l'Exposition Internationale de coordonner les énormes facilités hôtelières de la région de New York City, et de fonctionner comme centre de triage pour les réservations et renseignements concernant les établissements qui offrent des logements aux visiteurs de l'Exposition Internationale. Son programme a reçu l'appui unanime de l'industrie hôtelière et motelière. Bien que la date d'inauguration de l'exposition soit encore bien loin au moment où ceci est écrit, pratiquement tous les hôtels et motels de voyageurs de New York City et environs sont d'accord pour participer.

Le Bureau de Logement de l'Exposition Internationale invite les organismes, représentants de gouvernements, agences de voyages, transporteurs et autres membres du tourisme dans le monde entier à coopérer avec lui pour fournir à tous les visiteurs de l'Exposition Internationale les meilleures facilités de logement.

Se espera que unos 70 millones de personas visiten la Feria Mundial de Nueva York durante 1964 y 1965. Entre ellos habrá residentes de cada estado de la unión, y de casi todos los países del mundo. Para asegurar que estos millones de visitantes encuentren habitaciones en hoteles o moteles —adecuados a sus gustos y a precios razonables—, la "New York World's Fair 1964-1965 Corporation" (Corporación de la Feria Mundial de Nueva York 1964-1965), ha coordinado con el "New York Convention and Visitors Bureau" (Buró de Convenciones y Visitantes de Nueva York) la creación de un "World's Fair Housing Bureau" (Buró de Alojamientos para la Feria Mundial).

El "Convention and Visitor's Bureau" es una organización cívica no lucrativa que proporciona información y ayuda a los visitantes de Nueva York, y que tiene larga experiencia en facilitar alojamiento para convenciones y otros eventos que atraen gran cantidad de personas a la Ciudad. El "Housing Bureau" (Buró de Alojamientos) funcionará bajo su directa supervisión.

La finalidad del "World's Fair Housing Bureau" es coordinar las enormes facilidades de alojamiento que ofrece el área de la ciudad de Nueva York, y actuar como agente intermediario de las reservaciones, y centro de información sobre las posibilidades de alojamiento para los visitantes de la Feria Mundial. Su programa ha recibido el apoyo unánime de la industria de hoteles y moteles. Aunque la fecha de inauguración de la Feria dista aún muchos meses, virtualmente todos los hoteles y moteles de la ciudad de Nueva York y sus alrededores han acordado participar en este programa.

El "World's Fair Housing Bureau" invita a las organizaciones, representaciones gubernamentales, agentes de viaje y transporte, y otros miembros de la industria viajera de todo el mundo, a cooperar con él, para proporcionar el mejor alojamiento posible a todos los visitantes de la Feria Mundial.

INTRODUCTION

This World's Fair Housing Handbook is a guide to hotel and motel facilities in and near New York City for the accommodation of visitors to the New York World's Fair 1964-1965. It is published for the use of travel agents, transportation firms, government representatives and other organizations serving the traveling public.

The information contained in the Handbook was compiled on an impartial basis by the staff of the New York World's Fair Housing Bureau, which is the official housing service for the Fair, from information submitted by the participating hotels and motels. The selection and arrangement of the data has been designed to make the Handbook of maximum value both as a planning aid for people in the travel industry, and as a reference for answering questions that may be asked by individual travelers to the Fair.

All of the hotels and motels listed in the Handbook are participants in the World's Fair Housing Bureau program. Each establishment has agreed in writing that it will:

1. Hold and honor all reservations made by it in accordance with the terms of its confirmation and maintain the highest standard of fair dealing in its relations with World's Fair visitors to promote good will and understanding as a matter of good business practice and as its contribution to the success of the Fair.
2. Receive applications for reservations of housing accommodations forwarded by the Bureau for occupancy during the periods in the years 1964 and 1965 when the New York World's Fair is open to the public. When such application is accepted by the hotel or motel confirmation of the reservation will be sent by it to the person, firm or corporation making the application and a copy of such confirmation forwarded simultaneously to the Bureau.
3. Charge rates for the period when the Fair is open to the public in 1964 which do not exceed the regular rates which the hotel has in effect on January 1, 1964. The rates for the period when the Fair is open to the public in 1965 shall not exceed the regular rates in effect on January 1, 1965.* The hotel will notify the Bureau promptly of any changes in rates.

4. Pay commissions to recognized travel agents at its customary rate on business originating with such agents, whether the application is received directly from the agents or from the Bureau.

5. Accept applications for accommodations without discrimination against the applicants by reason of race, creed, color or national origin.

The World's Fair Housing Bureau will process requests for housing accommodations from individuals, groups, institutions, corporations, travel agents, transportation officials, government representatives and others who will require housing during the periods in 1964 and 1965 when the Fair is open to the public.

Assuming that no establishments are specified in the request, it will be transmitted to a hotel or motel which, in the discretion of the Housing Bureau, can best meet the requirements for the desired accommodations.

The Housing Bureau may also, at its discretion, transmit certain reservation requests—e.g. those involving a large group or other wise calling for special arrangements—to all hotels and motels which are participants in the program. In such cases, each establishment that is interested in providing the accommodations will send its offer directly to the person or firm that made the original request.

Reservation requests and other communications concerning specific establishments should, whenever possible, be made directly to the individual hotel or motel at the addresses and telephone numbers given in the Handbook.

For maximum convenience in using the Handbook, the listings have been grouped according to three major geographical divisions.

Area 1 is that portion of Manhattan Island from the Battery (its southern extremity) northward to approximately 125th Street.

Area 2 comprises the remainder of New York City, i.e. the Boroughs of The Bronx, Brooklyn (Kings County), Queens and Staten Island (Richmond). It also takes in the remainder of Manhattan not included in Area 1.

The Area 2 listings are arranged alphabetically within each Borough.

Area 3 includes the environs of New York City within a radius of approximately 50 miles of the Fair site. The Area 3 listings are arranged alphabetically within major geographical divisions.

To assist users in locating the establishments listed, the Handbook includes a general map and three Area maps corresponding to the areas defined above. Each Area map is at the beginning of the listings for that Area.

The Map location given in each listing refers to the grid coordinates on the Area map preceding that listing.

The facilities provided in housekeeping suites may vary. For the purpose of these listings, however, an accommodation that is equipped with a sink, a refrigerator and an appliance for the heating of food is regarded as a housekeeping suite.

The term outdoor parking refers to off-street parking space other than in a garage.

For the purposes of determining whether group rates are applicable, a group is generally considered to consist of at least 20 persons. However, individual establishments may differ in the criteria which they use for applying group rates.

American plan refers to a combined rate for room and three meals per day.

A modified American plan rate includes room and either one or two meals per day.

Please address reservation requests and all other communications for the Housing Bureau as follows:

P.O. BOX 1964

Cable Address: HOUSINGBUR NEWYORK

* The rates listed in this Handbook are those reported as current at the time this information was compiled in the summer of 1962. Early in 1964, the New York World's Fair Housing Bureau will issue a supplementary folder containing a digest of the rates for that year at each participating establishment. A similar folder will be published for the year 1965.

Add 5% tax to rates listed in New York City and 3½% in Connecticut.

INTRODUCTION EN FRANÇAIS

Cette brochure sur le logement pendant l'Exposition Internationale est un guide concernant les disponibilités des hôtels et motels à New York et aux environs en vue de l'hébergement des visiteurs de l'Exposition Internationale (New York World's Fair) de 1964-1965. Elle est publiée à l'intention des agences de voyage, des services de transports, des représentants des gouvernements et autres organismes s'intéressant aux voyages.

Les renseignements contenus dans cette brochure ont été réunis d'une manière impartiale par le personnel du Bureau de Logement (Housing Bureau) de l'Exposition Internationale de New York, qui est le service de logement officiel pour cette exposition, d'après les renseignements fournis par les hôtels et motels qui y participent. Le choix et l'arrangement du contenu sont destinés à donner à cette brochure toute sa valeur tant pour aider les agences de voyage dans leurs plans, que pour servir à répondre aux questions que des voyageurs peuvent individuellement poser à l'Exposition.

Tous les hôtels et motels indiqués dans la brochure participent au programme du Bureau de Logement de l'Exposition Internationale. Chaque établissement a donné son accord écrit sur les points suivants:

1. Maintenir et honorer toutes les réservations acceptées dans les termes de sa confirmation et assurer la plus parfaite honnêteté dans ses rapports avec les visiteurs de l'Exposition Internationale pour propager compréhension et sympathie tant dans l'intérêt bien compris du commerce que pour contribuer au succès de l'Exposition.

2. Recevoir les demandes de réservations de facilités de logement transmises par le Bureau pour être occupées pendant les années 1964 et 1965 où l'Exposition Internationale de New York sera ouverte au public. Lorsqu'une telle demande est acceptée par un hôtel ou motel il envoie confirmation de la réservation à la personne, firme ou société qui en a fait la demande, et il adresse en même temps copie de cette confirmation au Bureau.

3. Les prix demandés pendant la période de 1964 où l'Exposition sera ouverte au public n'excéderont pas les prix habituels appliqués par l'hôtel le 1er janvier 1964. Les prix pour la période de 1965 où l'Exposition est ouverte au public n'excéderont pas les prix habituels appliqués le 1er janvier 1965*. L'hôtel informera promptement le Bureau de tout changement de prix.

4. Payer des commissions aux agences de voyage reconnues, au tarif habituel pour affaires provenant de ces agences, que la demande soit reçue directement de l'agence ou qu'elle soit passée par le Bureau.
5. Accepter les demandes de logement sans discriminer contre les requérants pour raison de race, croyance, couleur ou nationalité.

Le Bureau de Logement de l'Exposition Internationale examinera les requêtes pour facilités de logement provenant d'individus, groupes, institutions, sociétés, agences de voyage, services de transports, représentants de gouvernements et autres qui demanderont un logement pendant les périodes de 1964 et 1965 où l'Exposition sera ouverte au public.

En supposant qu'aucun établissement ne soit prévu dans la demande, elle sera transmise à l'hôtel ou motel, qui, d'après le Bureau de Logement, pourra le mieux satisfaire aux désirs du demandeur.

Le Bureau de Logement peut aussi, s'il le juge utile, transmettre certaines demandes de réservations—par exemple celle concernant un groupe important ou ayant besoin d'arrangements spéciaux—à tous les hôtels et motels qui participent au programme. Dans de tels cas, tout établissement intéressé à fournir les facilités adressera son offre directement à la personne ou à la firme qui aura fait la demande à l'origine.

Les demandes de réservations et autres communications concernant des établissements en particulier devront, autant que possible, être envoyés directement à l'hôtel ou motel intéressé à l'adresse et numéro de téléphone donné dans la brochure.

Pour le maximum de commodités dans l'emploi de la brochure, les mentions ont été groupées suivant trois divisions géographiques principales.

La première région (Area 1) comprend la partie sud de Manhattan de la Batterie jusqu'à à peu près la 125ème rue au nord.

La deuxième région (Area 2) comprend le reste de New York City, c'est-à-dire les boroughs du Bronx, Brooklyn (Kings County), Queens et Richmond (Staten Island). Il comprend aussi le reste de Manhattan non compris dans la première région.

Les mentions de la deuxième région sont groupées par ordre alphabétique dans chaque quartier.

Pour aider les intéressés à situer les établissements mentionnés, la brochure comprend une carte générale et trois cartes régionales correspondant aux trois régions définies ci-dessus. La carte régionale est au début des mentions concernant la région.

L'emplacement sur la carte donné dans chaque mention réfère aux coordonnées de la carte de quartier précédant cette mention.

Les commodités prévues pour les housekeeping suites (appartements) peuvent varier. En ce qui concerne ces mentions, toutefois, un logement qui est pourvu d'un évier, d'un réfrigérateur et d'un réchaud est considéré comme appartement.

L'expression outdoor parking (garage à l'extérieur) veut dire garage ailleurs que dans la rue mais à découvert.

Lorsqu'il s'agit de savoir si des group rates (prix de groupe) sont applicables, on considère généralement comme groupe au moins 20 personnes. Toutefois, les établissements peuvent individuellement utiliser des critères différents pour appliquer les prix de groupe.

American plan (régime américain) veut dire prix de pension pour la chambre et trois repas par jour. Un Modified American plan (régime américain modifié) comprend la chambre et un ou deux repas par jour.

Veuillez adresser les demandes de réservations et toutes autres communications au Bureau de Logement de la manière suivante:

* Les prix mentionnés dans cette brochure sont ceux indiqués comme courants au moment où ces renseignements ont été rassemblés dans l'été de 1962. Au début de 1964, le Bureau de Logement de l'Exposition Internationale (New York World's Fair Housing Bureau) publiera un supplément contenant une liste des prix pour cette année pratiqués par chaque établissement participant. Une autre liste semblable sera publiée pour l'année 1965.

Il y a une taxe de 5% sur les prix donnés dans la ville de New York et une taxe de 3 1/2% dans l'état de Connecticut.

INTRODUCCIÓN EN ESPAÑOL

El Manual de Alojamientos de la Feria Mundial es una guía de hoteles y moteles en —y cerca de— la ciudad de Nueva York, en los que podrán alojarse los visitantes de la Feria Mundial de Nueva York 1964-1965. Ha sido publicado para los agentes de viajes, las compañías de transporte, organizaciones gubernamentales y otras, que están al servicio del público viajero.

La información contenida en el Manual, ha sido reunida con absoluta imparcialidad por el "New York World's Fair Housing Bureau", que es el servicio oficial de alojamientos de la Feria. Esta información la brindaron los hoteles y moteles participantes. La selección y la ordenación de la información contenida en este Manual, ha sido clasificada en forma tal como para que el Manual rinda máximo servicio, sirva de ayuda a los planes de la industrial viajera, y como referencia a preguntas que se puedan formular los que vengan libremente a la Feria.

Todos los hoteles y moteles que aparecen relacionados en la lista del Manual, participan en el programa del "World's Fair Housing Bureau". Cada establecimiento se ha comprometido, por escrito, a lo siguiente:

1. Mantener y cumplir todas las reservaciones hechas de acuerdo con los términos de la confirmación, y mantener el más alto nivel de imparcialidad en sus relaciones con los visitantes a la Feria Mundial, para promover las buenas relaciones y la comprensión como práctica de corriente de negocios y como contribución al éxito de la Feria.
2. Recibir peticiones de reservación y alojamiento enviadas por el Buró para ser cumplimentadas durante el período de los años 1964 y 1965, cuando la Feria Mundial de Nueva York estará abierta al público. Cuando el hotel o motel acepten tal petición de alojamiento, se enviará una confirmación de la reservación a la persona, compañía o corporación que hace la petición, y una copia de tal confirmación se enviará simultáneamente al Buró.
3. Las tarifas de alojamiento que estarán vigentes durante el período de duración de la Feria, no serán superiores a las tarifas regulares que mantenga el hotel el primero de enero de 1964. Las tarifas para el periodo en que la Feria esté abierta al público en 1965, no excederán a las tarifas regulares en efecto al primero de enero de 1965*. El hotel informará rápidamente al Buró sobre cualquier cambio en las tarifas.

4. Pagar comisiones a los agentes de viaje reconocidos, en base de sus tarifas habituales, por toda transacción en la que ellos tomen parte, ya sea que la petición de reservación se reciba directamente de los agentes o del Buró.
5. Aceptar peticiones de alojamiento sin discriminar a los peticionarios por motivos de raza, creencias, color o nacionalidad. El "World's Fair Housing Bureau" tramitará peticiones de alojamiento de individuos, grupos, instituciones, corporaciones, agentes de viaje, funcionarios del transporte, representaciones gubernamentales, y otros que requieran alojamiento durante el periodo de tiempo del 1964 y 1965 en que la Feria estará abierta al público.

Suponiendo que no se especifiquen establecimientos en particular, la petición de alojamiento se transmitirá a un hotel o motel que, en opinión del "Housing Bureau", llene los requisitos deseados.

El "Housing Bureau" puede también, a su entera discreción, transmitir ciertas peticiones de alojamiento —por ejemplo, las que comprendan grandes grupos, o que requieran detalles especiales de acomodo— a todos los hoteles y moteles que participan en el programa. En tales casos, cada establecimiento que esté interesado en proporcionar alojamiento deberá enviar su oferta directamente a la persona o compañía que hizo la petición original.

Las peticiones de reservaciones, y otras comunicaciones referentes a establecimientos determinados, deberán —siempre que sea posible— ser enviadas directamente al hotel o motel elegido; las direcciones y números de teléfono aparecen en el Manual.

Para conveniencia máxima en el uso del Manual, las listas se han agrupado de acuerdo con tres mayores divisiones geográficas:

Area 1 Es la parte de la Isla de Manhattan que abarca desde The Battery (su extremo sur), hacia el norte, aproximadamente hasta la calle 125.

Area 2 Comprende lo restante de la Ciudad de Nueva York: los barrios del Bronx, Brooklyn (Kings County), Queens y Richmond (Staten Island). También comprende el área restante de Manhattan no incluida en el Area 1.

Las listas del Area 2 están ordenadas alfabéticamente, comprendiendo cada Barrio.

Area 3 Incluye los alrededores de la Ciudad de Nueva York, dentro de un radio aproximadamente de 50 millas alrededor del lugar de la Feria. Las listas del Area 3 están preparadas en orden alfabético dentro de mayores divisiones geográficas.

Para ayudar a localizar los establecimientos mencionados en la lista, el Manual incluye un mapa general y tres mapas de las áreas, que corresponden a las anteriormente mencionadas. Cada mapa de área está al principio de la lista del área misma.

La map location (localización según el mapa), que aparece en cada lista, se refiere al mapa del área que precede a las mismas.

Las facilidades que se ofrecen en los housekeeping suites (apartamientos familiares) pueden variar. Para facilitar esta clasificación diremos sin embargo que: todo alojamiento equipado con fregadero, refrigerador, y facilidades para calentar los alimentos, es considerado como una "suite" o apartamento familiar.

La frase: outdoor parking (estacionamiento al aire libre) se refiere a lugar para dejar el auto, no directamente en las calles, pero tampoco en garages, sino en espacios abiertos.

Con el propósito de determinar si son aplicables las group rates (tarifas de grupo), diremos que un grupo se considera como tal si consiste de 20 personas por lo menos. Sin embargo, algunos establecimientos pueden diferir en cuanto al criterio por el cual determinan las tarifas de grupo.

American plan (Plan Americano): Comprende una tarifa combinada por la habitación y tres comidas al día.

Modified American plan (Plan Americano Modificado): En esta tarifa se incluye la habitación y una o dos comidas al día.

Por favor, dirija las peticiones de reservaciones, y toda otra correspondencia al "Housing Bureau" en la siguiente forma:

* Las tarifas contenidas en este Manual son las vigentes en la época en que se recopiló esta información: el verano de 1962. A principios de 1964, el "New York World's Fair Housing Bureau" (Buro de Alojamiento de la Feria Mundial de Nueva York) publicará un folleto suplementario conteniendo un resumen de las tarifas vigentes ese año para cada establecimiento en particular. Un folleto similar será publicado para el año 1965.

Hay un impuesto de 5% en los precios de los hoteles en la ciudad de New York y de 3½% en el estado de Connecticut.

Area 1 Island of Manhattan from the Battery to 125th Street

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION TO THE FAIR FROM POINTS IN AREA 1

Subway: The IRT Flushing Line runs directly to the Willetts Point station at the Fair. The East Side IRT subway connects with the Flushing Line at Grand Central. The West Side IRT subways connect with the Flushing Line at Times Square. The BMT subways connect with the Flushing Line at Times Square and at Queensboro Plaza in Queens. The E train (8th Avenue) and the F train (6th Avenue) of the IND subway connect with the Flushing Line at the Roosevelt Avenue-Jackson Heights station in Queens.

Travel time from points in midtown Manhattan is approximately twenty-five to thirty minutes. There is no charge for transfer between lines at these stations. The fare on all subway lines is a uniform 15 cents.

Railroad: Long Island Railroad trains depart at frequent intervals from Pennsylvania Station, at 33rd Street and Seventh Avenue, to the World's Fair Station. Travel time to the Fair is approximately fifteen to twenty minutes. The fare is expected to be 50 cents.

Special Bus: It is contemplated that special buses direct to the Fair will depart regularly from the Port Authority Bus Terminal at 42nd Street and Eighth Avenue. The fares are expected to be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Excursion Boats: It is tentatively planned that excursion boats will run from Manhattan to the World's Fair Marina. The cost is expected to be $3.00 for adults and $1.50 for children.

Helicopter: Special helicopter service direct to the Fair will operate from the West 30th Street Heliport and from the roof of the Pan Am Building.

Taxi: A taxi to the World's Fair from most points in midtown Manhattan will average about $5.00, including tolls and tip. There is no extra charge for additional passengers in the same taxicab. The maximum number of persons permitted in a taxi is either four or five, depending on the type of cab.

Private Auto: Visitors may drive to the Fair from Manhattan via the Triboro Bridge (toll 25 cents), the Queensboro Bridge (free), or the Queens-Midtown Tunnel (toll 25 cents). Road distance ranges from nine to fourteen miles. Travel time ranges from thirty to forty-five minutes, depending on the location of the hotel. Additional time should be allowed during peak traffic periods.

The parking charge for passenger cars at the Fair parking fields is $1.50 per day. Additional parking facilities are available at the Flushing Airport Parking Field at $.75 per day. Patrons will have to travel from this field to the Fair by bus, at the rate of 15 cents each way.

It is expected that many additional transportation services will be available during the period of the Fair. Users of the Handbook are therefore advised to consult with the individual hotels concerning the most convenient form of transportation from each location.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION TO THE FAIR FROM POINTS IN AREA 2

Subway: Connection can be made from all boroughs with the IRT Flushing Line, which has a stop at the Fair at the Willets Point Station. There is no charge for transfer between lines at the stations mentioned below. The fare on all subway lines is a uniform 15 cents.

From the Bronx, connection can be made with the IRT Flushing Line by taking any IRT subway either to the Times Square or Grand Central stops in Manhattan.

From Brooklyn, visitors may take the IRT or BMT subways to the Times Square or Grand Central stops in Manhattan. Connection can also be made by taking the IND Crosstown subway (GG train) to the Roosevelt Avenue-Jackson Heights stop in Queens.

All IND trains serving Queens connect with the IRT Flushing Line at the Roosevelt Avenue-Jackson Heights stop.

From Staten Island (Richmond) visitors can take the Staten Island Ferry to Lower Manhattan, then change to an IRT subway to the Grand Central stop for connection with the IRT Flushing Line.

Bus: In Queens, a network of city bus lines will provide service to the Fair from many points. The fare on bus lines is usually 15 cents. There is a surcharge of 10 to 15 cents for long rides on some bus lines. The Carey Airport Coaches operating between La Guardia and Idlewild Airports will have a special stop at the Fair.

Helicopter: Special helicopter service will operate direct to the Fair from La Guardia and Idlewild Airports.

Taxi: New York City taxi rates are 25 cents for the first 1/5 mile, plus 5 cents for each additional 1/5 mile. Consult individual hotel listings for approximate mileage to the Fair. There is no charge for additional passengers in the same taxicab. The maximum number of persons is either four or five, depending on the type of cab.

It is expected that many additional transportation services will be available during the period of the Fair. Users of the Handbook are therefore advised to consult with the individual hotels concerning the most convenient form of transportation from each location.

---

NASSAU AND SUFFOLK COUNTIES

Railroad: These areas are served by the Long Island Railroad, which will have a special stop at the Fair.

Bus: Suburban bus lines connect many points with the borough of Queens, where connection can be made with city subway or bus lines serving the Fair.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY

Railroad: The New York Central and the New Haven railroads provide service to Grand Central Terminal in Manhattan, where transfer can be made to the IRT Flushing subway line, which has a stop at the Fair.

Bus: From some points in Lower Westchester, it may be more convenient to take suburban buses to subway terminals in the Bronx, where passengers can continue to the Fair by subway.

ROCKLAND AND ORANGE COUNTIES

Bus: Suburban bus service is available to Manhattan, from which passengers may continue to the Fair by connecting subway or bus.

FAIRFIELD COUNTY, CONNECTICUT

Railroad: The New Haven Railroad provides service to Grand Central Terminal in Manhattan, where transfer can be made to the IRT Flushing subway line.

NEW JERSEY

Bus: Bus service is available from nearly all listed points in New Jersey to Manhattan, where passengers can continue to the Fair by connecting subway or bus.

Railroad: Several points are served by the Pennsylvania Railroad, running to Pennsylvania Station in Manhattan where transfer can be made to the Long Island Railroad. The New Jersey Central and the Erie Lackawanna railroads provide service from many points to Hoboken, where passengers can take the Hudson Tubes into Manhattan.

Hudson Tubes: From Jersey City and Newark, visitors can take the Hudson Tubes to 33rd Street in Manhattan, and then continue to the Fair by subway, bus or the Long Island Railroad. The fare is 40 cents from Newark and 30 cents from other points to Manhattan.

Helicopter: Special helicopter service is planned connecting Newark Airport with the Fair.

It is expected that many additional transportation services will be available during the period of the Fair. Users of the Handbook are therefore advised to consult with the individual hotels concerning the most convenient form of transportation from each location.
